bragging rights

Here are highlights from residents on the Southside and in surrounding neighborhoods:

Academic

- The National Merit Scholarship Corp. has named eight Duval County public school students winners of scholarships financed by colleges and universities.

Winners from Stanton College Preparatory School are: Jessica Davis, Lauren Fant and Visalak Ramachandran, all going to the University of Central Florida; Nikola Dragovic, New York University; Taraneh Hazrati, Florida State University; Robert Lamell, Georgia Institute of Technology; and Justin Spengler, New College of Florida. Anne Ogburn, from Douglas Anderson School of the Arts, is going to Tulane University.

- The Jacksonville Alumnae Panhellenic Association recently named area scholarship winners.

Erin Lahey, attending Florida State University, daughter of Theresa and David Lahey; Anne Lahey, a graduate of Douglas Anderson School of the Arts, daughter of Theresa and David Lahey; Macy Selvig, a graduate of Douglas Anderson School of the Arts, daughter of Tanya Selvig; and Alexandra Maisch, a graduate of Episcopal High School, daughter of Jan and Bob Maisch.

Three cheers

- Empowerment Resources has named Jasmine Harris the 2008 Journey Into Womanhood scholarship winner. Jasmine is a member of the National Honor Society and has been an honor roll student since elementary school. She is a graduate of Wolfson High and will attend the University of Florida, majoring in communications/public relations.

JiW promotes leadership development in teen girls ages 9 to 17 and addresses the real issues youth are faced with today.
