

Journey Into Womanhood

An Empowerment Resources, Inc., Program

In this day in time, there are a number of issues that plague girls and their development into womanhood. For some this development is healthy, as it is nurtured by strong influences such as their parents, family members, and other positive figures in their communities. On the other hand, for some girls, this stage of development can lead to a life-long nightmare. It is the intent of this curriculum to facilitate all that is healthy in voyage into womanhood for all dedicated and committed girls ages 9-17 or 3rd-12th grade (however you cannot be a senior in high school as a new program participant).

Over the course of about 20-25 weeks, participants of Journey Into Womanhood (JIW) will be introduced to the following:

- The Value of SELF
- Concepts of Beauty
- Health & Fitness/Food & Nutrition
- Our Society & Social Constructs
- Employment/Career Skills
- "A" is for Academics
- Relationships & Social Skills
- Etiquette
- Community Building
- Abstinence "plus"/STD Prevention
- Drug & Alcohol Prevention
- Investments, Savings and Financial Literacy

Activities may include:

- Community and Group Based Mentoring (done onsite and via electronic communication monthly with female mentors)
- Annual Community Service Project (volunteer hours apply)
- Life- Skills Workshops and Organizational Development
- Annual College Tour (when funding available/ may be an additional fee)
- Public Speaking
- Enrichment to possibly include (STEM, Sewing, Cooking, Leadership Development)
- Enrichment Trips to possibly include (the Arts, Performances and Sporting Events)

WHO WE ARE

About Empowerment Resources

Empowerment Resources Inc., a private 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to focus on making children and their families stronger while empowering them to become successful leaders in the community. Empowerment Resource's Journey Into Womanhood (JIW) program originally started as a summer program in 2003. Due to the success of the program and request from parents, youth, and the community, the JIW program was extended throughout the year. Empowerment Resources Inc. currently offers the following services; Journey Into Womanhood program, life-skills workshops for male and female teens, parenting seminars and coaching and to date has served 1,500 youth and families.

Elexia Coleman-Moss, executive director and founder of Empowerment Resources, Inc., is a civic-minded humanitarian committed to utilizing her passion, education, experiences and time to empower children and families, by helping them identify and promote the "power" within them.

She is a native of Jacksonville, Florida, but was raised and attended school in Sarasota, Florida. Coleman-Moss exhibited leadership skills as a teen and put her skills to work for the betterment of her school. Elexia has worked throughout her career supporting children, adolescents and families facing social and economic problems. Upon graduation from high school, she furthered her studies at Florida A&M University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in psychology with a minor in criminal justice. In 2002, she completed coursework at the graduate level for behavior analysis. Mrs. Coleman-Moss is a Nationally Recognized Trainer/Consultant in the Nurturing Parenting curriculum since 2007 and is a certified life coach under the CAPP Institute. In 2013 she completed her Master's in Public Administration.

A tireless advocate for children, Elexia has been nominated for awards to include the City of Jacksonville Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women and received the WJCT's American Graduate award. She currently serves as a dedicated volunteer for the Florida Department of Education as a CROP Advisory Council Member, University of North Florida's Marketing Advisory Council, and serves on the Leadership team for the First Coast Girls Initiative.

Volunteers and Mentors for the JIW program

Empowerment Resources, Inc., is run by dedicated community volunteers. All volunteers must go through an application process, which includes an interview, background screenings, DCF Affidavit of Good Moral Character and letters of recommendation before they are allowed to volunteer with the program. All volunteers who serve as mentors must complete a comprehensive training. Only female adults are allowed to volunteer at JIW youth meetings. The JIW program is facilitated by experienced leaders and volunteers who put them on the path to positively impact the communities in which they live. Past mentors for the program have included social workers, educators, marketing managers, physical therapist, nurses and journalist.

JIW CODE OF CONDUCT

1. HONESTY - I will approach all that I do in a sincere and honest manner. In an effort to uphold my integrity and demonstrate good character I will, act in a trustworthy manner, neither lying nor intentionally misleading others.
2. RESPECT For myself and others - As a member of the community, I will do my best to make a positive contribution. Therefore, to show respect for myself and others, I will:
 - Not engage in name calling, use of profanity, hitting, or purposely hurting, offending, verbally attacking, humiliating, or belittling another person, even though there may be disagreements in beliefs, choices, and/or behaviors.
 - Listen while others are talking.
 - Choose appropriate words when speaking to my elders/adults and my peers.
 - Be attentive during face to face and online meetings and create a safe space (no cyberbullying).
 - Cell Phones – When not being used for educational reasons or Zoom, are to only be used at the beginning and end of meetings, unless permission is granted. Violation of this rule will result in removal of phone for the day and will be returned to an adult only at the end of the meeting.
 - I will be responsible for my personal belongings and equipment and will label all. I will not hold Empowerment Resource Inc. or any other individual or program provider responsible for my loss or damage due to my negligence.

For community and surroundings - I will respect our community property. I understand the importance of respecting the possessions of others. Therefore, to show this respect, I will:

- Properly dispose of trash, waste, recycle when appropriate, and avoid any action which unduly contributes to pollution.
- Not damage, deface, destroy or vandalize any community, school, or individual property.
- Not take things that belong to others.
- NO GUM CHEWING at meetings or outings

DRESS CODE

JIW girls will be required to wear their JIW T-shirt to meetings with appropriate bottoms and shoes. See below for the more details. For special meetings and outings, advanced notice will be given to JIW participants and they will be allowed to wear “non-JIW uniforms”. In general, please follow these guidelines for dress attire:

1. Skirts and shorts should be an appropriate length.
2. Shirts must be long enough that they can be worn tucked inside (no bare midriff or belly buttons showing)! JIW shirts must be worn(in original condition) unless otherwise noted.
3. Shoes- Appropriate footwear should be worn at all times. No slippers or flip-flops (shoes must have a back). Shoes should fully cover feet when going on outings/trips.
4. No see-through clothing with out under shirt.
5. Clothes advertising illegal substances (drugs, alcohol, tobacco products) for teens or language and writing that is inappropriate or offensive (sex, profanity, racial or ethnic slurs, gang related attire, etc) may not be worn.
6. Bonnets are not allowed for online and in person meetings in dress code.

Failure to follow these rules and code of conduct can result in suspension from the program and trips or dismissal from the program.

I understand that by being a part of the Journey Into Womanhood program, I must respect myself and others by exhibiting appropriate behavior, wearing appropriate dress attire and a positive attitude.

I _____ agree to this statement and to follow these rules as well as the Participant/Parent Manual. (Participant/Parent manual to be given out at youth and parent orientation)

SIGN IN AND OUT POLICY

For safety and liability please sign your child in and out of meetings. Do not drop off your children. During dismissal please be prepared to show proper photo ID until our volunteer team learns each authorized person listed on the application. If a person not listed on the application is picking up the child, we will need written permission from the parent/caregiver and a photo ID. Please pick up your child promptly after each workshop. We do our best to dismiss between 12:55pm and 1:05pm. A small grace period of a few minutes is offered, however we reserve the right to charge a late pick up fee of $25 for each 30 minutes you are late.

LOCATION, TIME, and DATES

Journey Into Womanhood usually takes place ONCE A MONTH on Saturdays, from 10:00 a.m. – 1 p.m. The program runs from until September to May. For a listing of dates, time and location, please see the last page. We meet at 431 University Blvd N., Jacksonville, FL 32211 (Arlington Congregational Church). Public transportation is near. Additionally girls are required to meet once a quarter with their assigned mentor via Zoom. Schedules to come once assigned a mentor. Parents are only welcomed to sit in on meetings when invited (i.e. parent/youth meetings). This allows your child to open up and develop a bond with the volunteers and program directors.

ATTENDANCE and ARRIVING ON TIME

Participants are encouraged to attend monthly. Absences are allowed for illness and special family circumstances. If absence is known in advance, please notify one of the program coordinators. Since this program has limited seating, we ask that all ladies attend on a consistent basis. If more than 4 meetings are missed, consideration for future outings will be pending. We try to start and end of time to be fair to our presenters, volunteers, and the youth. Please have your child arrive between 9:50am-10am to assist us with staying on schedule.

PARTICIPANT EVALUATIONS

In order for a participant to remain in the program this year, you must remain in good standing through the entire program year. Participants may be evaluated mid-year to ensure they remain in Good Standing. The following criteria must be met to remain in Good Standings:

- Attendance 85 % (no more than 4 absences for the JIW year, September-May)
- Program participation
- Behavior and Attitude
- Parent Participation (more to come during quarterly parent meetings)
